Mini Major

The Olympia London International Horse Show has once again invited eight lucky Members of The Pony Club to take part in the Mini Major Show Jumping class at the show which is held at Christmas time. Each Pony Club Member will be paired with one of the senior international riders competing at the show and the competition is a pair relay with the time of the Pony Club Member deciding the winner. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity for 128cm pony riders to compete at a FEI 5 star International show.

Rules

Open to members of The Pony Club aged 12 and under, riding ponies 128cm and under. The top two of each competition will qualify for the final at The London International Horse Show (subject to eligibility, see below).

Mini-Major warm-up class. Single-Phase, Speed 325 mpm, Maximum height 90cm.
Mini-Major qualifying class. Table A7, Speed 325 mpm, Maximum height 90cm.
The winner of the class will be invited to compete at Olympia subject to eligibility. If the winner has already qualified, qualification will pass down the line.

Eligibility

Any rider who has taken part in The Pony Club Mini-Major at Olympia in previous years is not eligible.

In order to be selected for the Mini Major, the rider must have paid their Pony Club Membership fee in full.

An application form will be sent by The Pony Club to each rider provisionally selected for the London International Horse Show. Before selection can be confirmed, this form must be completed and returned by a parent or guardian and signed by the DC of the member's branch. Amongst the information requested on the form will be full details and dates of the rallies attended by the member.

There are specific dress and conduct rules which the London International Horse Show set for the Mini Major and these must be complied with. Details will be sent to the selected members.

Classes may be restricted.

Horse Events will be taking ONLINE ENTRIES
